

Save the Date

The Association of Church Musicians in Philadelphia (ACMP)
In Conjunction with the Office for Divine Worship presents

The Ars Celebrandi and Liturgical Music: A Necessary Connection for Parish Liturgical Musicians

February 4, 2023, 9:30 AM to 2:30 PM
Saint Helena Parish
Bluebell, PA

This workshop is directed to all priests, deacons and parish musicians. The important connection between the Ars celebrandi and liturgical music will be demonstrated as the foundational principle to guide choices for liturgical music for the celebration of the Eucharist as well as for Weddings and Funerals. This connection will also be developed as an essential aid to authentic participation in the sacramental mysteries and the deepening of conversion to Christ.

Registration: Information about registration will be posted on the website for Office for Divine Worship, <https://www.odwphiladelphia.org/>, beginning September 1, 2022.

Workshop Fees:

Early-bird through November 30, 2022:

$50 per person (ACMP member and non-member)

December 1, 2022--February 4, 2023:

$60 for members, $70 for non-members, $60 for 5 or more from one parish

Full-Time Students, Religious, Seminarians, Deacons, Priests:

$30 (flat fee, no early-bird)

Virtual--$30 (no early-bird, one flat fee)

The fee includes a continental breakfast and lunch.