

The Office for the New Evangelization presents

INTENTIONAL ACCOMPANIMENT

with Christ in the City

An Introductory Webinar

Christ in the City is a powerful evangelization apostolate that seeks to bring the transforming power of authentic relationship to men and women who live in our city streets. While their outreach is specifically with the homeless, their model of intentional accompaniment is something that can be learned and applied in all ministries, especially in the parish.

Join us as Sophia Van Horn, Outreach Coordinator for Christ in the City Philadelphia, gives us an introduction to Christ in the City's model of intentional accompaniment, how it changes lives and how you can apply it in your mission field wherever you serve. She will also share various ways that your parish can engage with our local Christ in the City apostolate.
